2018-19 Membership Application

Step 8: Please Read

By submitting this form, you agree to be bound by all the provisions of the Texas Grain and Feed Association Constitution, By-Laws, Rules and Code of Ethics until your resignation has been accepted by the President or you have been expelled or suspended from membership.

Step 9: Are you a Level I Associate Member?

Associate Membership is for a business associated with the grain & feed industry but DOES NOT deal directly with grain or feed. Example types are insurance agencies, bag manufacturers, millwrights, or grain testing equipment companies. All eligible business types are on page 1 in the yellow box.

Note: grain brokers and traders fall into the Regular Member type.

• Level I Associate Member: $495

Step 10: Payment Options

Dues to Texas Grain & Feed Association are not deductible as a charitable contribution but may be deductible as an ordinary and necessary business expense. However, 10% of dues are not deductible as an ordinary and necessary business expense to the extent that TGFA engages in state or federal lobbying.
